

Contents

Part I Theoretical Perspectives and Paradigms

1 Globalization as a Dynamic Force in Contemporary Societies.....	3
1.1 The Debates on Globalization.....	6
1.2 Definition .....	7
1.3 Globalization and Causation.....	8
1.4 What Is “New” About Globalization .....	11
1.5 Ideational Approaches to Understanding Globalization and Families .....	15
1.6 Comprehensive, Holistic Approaches to Globalization.....	18
2 Approaches to Understanding Families .....	21
2.1 Defining Families.....	23
2.2 The Formal Study of Families .....	26
2.3 The Current Situation.....	31
2.4 Crosscultural Perspectives on Families.....	32
2.5 Fertility.....	34
2.6 Gender Role Trends .....	35
2.7 Changes in Families .....	37
3 Gendered Analyses of Globalization .....	39
3.1 Hegemonic Gender Discourses.....	41
3.2 Framing the Relationship Between Globalization and Gender .....	42
3.3 Masculine and Feminine Discourses .....	45
3.4 How Did We Get Here? Contributions of Family Studies and Gender Theorists .....	48
3.5 Patriarchy on the Decline?.....	50
3.6 What is Happening to the “Nuclear” Family .....	52
3.7 The Divisive Issue of Female Labor and Family Equality .....	54
3.8 Vulnerable Women and Children.....	55
3.9 Globalization, Gender, and Inequalities.....	57

Part II Examining Linkages between Globalization and Families

4 Global Migration and the Formation of Transnational Families ..... 61

    4.1 The Demographics of Migration..... 62

    4.2 What is “Different” About Contemporary Migration Patterns? ..... 64

    4.3 The Effects of Migration..... 65

    4.4 The Gendered Nature of Migration..... 67

    4.5 The Role of Families in Migration..... 69

    4.6 Children and Migration..... 73

        4.6.1 The Issue of Transnational Mothering ..... 73

        4.6.2 The Success of Immigrant Children ..... 75

    4.7 Issues of Cultural Identity ..... 76

    4.8 Family Change and Migration ..... 79

5 Work–Family Intersections in a Globalizing Context ..... 83

    5.1 What is Work?..... 85

    5.2 The Changing Nature of Family Life and Family Roles ..... 86

    5.3 The Changing Nature of the World of Work..... 89

    5.4 The Feminization of the Labor Force ..... 90

    5.5 Female-Headed Households ..... 93

    5.6 Where Does Girl’s Labor Fall? ..... 95

    5.7 Care Work and Women ..... 97

    5.8 Care Work and Children ..... 100

    5.9 Policies that Assist Families and Households..... 102

6 Global Conceptualizations of Children and Childhood ..... 105

    6.1 The Spread of a Universal Concept of Childhood ..... 106

    6.2 The Pivotal Role of Child Development Pedagogies..... 107

    6.3 Problematic Universal Concepts..... 109

    6.4 Changing Transitions to Adulthood..... 111

    6.5 The Complex Issue of Children’s Rights ..... 113

    6.6 Linking Children’s Rights with Women’s Rights ..... 116

    6.7 The Role of Gender and Generation in Children’s Lives..... 117

    6.8 Influences of Globalization on Children and Youth ..... 119

    6.9 The Problem of Child Labor ..... 120

    6.10 Responding to the Issue of Child Labor ..... 121

    6.11 The Vulnerability of Young People in a Globalizing Environment..... 123

    6.12 Children and Public Space ..... 124

    6.13 Emphasizing the Varied Dimensions of Children and Childhood ... 127

7 Critical Issues Around Global Aging ..... 129

    7.1 Reconceptualizing Aging..... 131

    7.2 Growing Concerns Around the Elderly ..... 132

        7.2.1 Significant Demographics..... 132

        7.2.2 The Relationship Between Aging and Fertility Declines ... 135

- 7.2.3 Dependency and Social Welfare ..... 136
- 7.3 Inequality and the Life Course..... 136
  - 7.3.1 Gender Issues ..... 137
- 7.4 The Crisis in Care ..... 138
- 7.5 The Case Study of China ..... 139
- 7.6 The Stress of the Sandwich Generation ..... 140
- 7.7 How Globalization Could Contribute Positively to Aging Issues..... 142
  - 7.7.1 Beneficial Social Policies..... 142

Part III Future Challenges and Opportunities

- 8 Nation-States, Transnational Spaces, and Family Linkages ..... 147
  - 8.1 The Role of the Nation-State with Respect to Its Citizens ..... 149
  - 8.2 The Role of States and Global Financial Flows..... 151
  - 8.3 Restructuring and Gender Effects ..... 153
  - 8.4 Debates About the Role of the Welfare State and Globalization ..... 155
  - 8.5 Welfare States and Families ..... 157
  - 8.6 Women’s Fertility and the Future of Industrialized
Nation-States ..... 160
  - 8.7 Growing Inequalities and the Role of the Nation-State ..... 162
  - 8.8 Agency and the Contemporary Nation-State ..... 164
  - 8.9 What Should be Next Steps?..... 165
- 9 Debates Around Globalization, Poverty, and Inequality..... 169
  - 9.1 What and How is Poverty Determined?..... 170
  - 9.2 Inequality Between and Within Societies ..... 172
  - 9.3 What are the Linkages Between Globalization,
Poverty, and Inequality?..... 174
  - 9.4 Local Responses to Globalizing Conditions ..... 176
  - 9.5 What Can be Done? ..... 177
- 10 Social Change, New Paradigms, and Implications for Families ..... 181
  - 10.1 The Realization of Globalization in the Family Domain..... 182
  - 10.2 Problematizing Static Concepts ..... 183
  - 10.3 Globalization and Family Change ..... 185
  - 10.4 Gender, Globalization, and the Market..... 189
  - 10.5 Harnessing the Forces of Globalization ..... 193
  - 10.6 The Continued Significance of Families..... 195
  - 10.7 Concluding Thoughts..... 197

References ..... 199

Index ..... 215